

THEOLOGY AND EARLY MODERN PHILOSOPHY (1550-1750)

Helsinki, 7–9 February 2008

A Centennial Jubilee Seminar of the Finnish Academy of Science and Letters

Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies

Fabianinkatu 24, ground floor

7 February 2008 Thursday

1. Philosophy in Post-Tridentian Catholic Theology

- 16.00 Opening
 M.W.F. Stone (Leuven): Philosophy in Early Modern Thomist and Scotist Theology
- 17.00-18.00 P. Dvorak (Prague): Philosophy in Jesuit Theology
- 18.15 J. Armogathe (Paris): Seventeenth-Century Augustinians

8 February 2008 Friday

2. Philosophy in Protestant Theology

- 9.15-10.15 S. Knuuttila (Helsinki): Philosophy in Seventeenth-Century
 Lutheran Theology
- 10.45 S. Lalla (Berlin): Philosophy in Post-Reformation Reformed
 Dogmatics
- 11.45-12.45 L.O. Nielsen (Copenhagen): Philosophy in Anglican Theology

3. Philosophers on Revealed Truths:

- 15.00 T. Schmaltz (Durham, North Carolina): Cartesianism in Crisis: The Case of the Eucharist
- 16.00-17.00 S. Hutton (Middlesex): Cambridge Platonists
- 17.30-18.30 M.-R. Antognazza (London): Leibniz's Metaphysics of the Trinity

9 February 2008 Saturday

4. Scepticism, Toleration, Science

- 9.15-10.15 P. Byrne (London): Matthew Tindal and Tolerance: Some Lockean
 Themes
- 10.30 I. MacLean (Oxford): Certainty and Uncertainty in Early Modern Theology and Natural Philosophy
- 11.30-12.30 J. Israel (Princeton): Spinoza and Radical Enlightenment

5. Philosophers on Revealed Truths

- 14.00 R. Jakapi (Tartu): Berkeley on Revealed Religion
- 15.00 J-L. Solere (Boston): Bayle and the Aporiai of Reason
- 16.00 T. Aho (Helsinki): Hobbes on Religion

Seminar is open for public.

More information: pekka.karkkainen@helsinki.fi